

Customized Invitations

Event Name: _____

Description of the Event	Reasons to Participate

Instructions: Write down the names of people you could invite to your event. Next to each name, write down why this opportunity might be helpful for them (think spiritually, socially, developmentally). In the Relationships column, write down what kind of relationship you have with each person and who else in your ministry is also connected with them. Finally, identify what reason might fit each person and who might be the best person to invite them, and write the custom invitation.
